

Nutcracker from terracotta pots

Instructions No. 2910

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 6 Hours

For many people, nutcrackers are an integral part of the Advent and Christmas season as a Christmas decoration. They symbolise good luck and, due to their strong teeth, are believed to be able to keep enemies and evil spirits away.

The heyday of the nutcracker began in the 18th century in the Erzgebirge. But nutcrackers are also very popular beyond the borders of Germany.

So what do you think about making the popular lucky charms yourself?! We'll give you the ideas and you can put them into practice in a cosy get-together with your loved ones.

Terracotta pots, Inside-Ø 3 cm, 10 pcs.
